

The TV/Movie industry continues to find way to erode the consumer's ability for fair use rights. The FCC should not capitulate and preserve and protect the consumer's ability to record off the air programming in its original HDTV signal for later viewing. The 'No record' option should not be allowed.